L.D.S. Women Show Styles At Party

Children's Clothing, women's hair fashions, and an original hat contest were combined in a showing of spring styles to mark the anniversary of the Women's Relief Society of the Latter Day Saints Church, last Wednesday evening, March 17, at the Chapel, on 220th and Cabrillo.

All varieties of children's clothing were seen, and were made available by the Squire's Shop. Children who modeled the styles were: Susan Gagnor, Dolores Hartley, Wanda Johnson, Cori Anderson, Ruth and Jean Stockstill, Lou Ann, Allen, and La Marr Millett, "Skipper" Williams, and Peter Pomero.

The second part of the show consisted of spring hair styles, presented by the Reno University of Beauty of Long Beach. Mr. Reno lectured on proper care of the skin and hair and make-up application.

A hat parade comprised the show's finale, with members showing individually designed hats depicting their own or the husbands' profession. Prizes were awarded to Mmes. Merrill Hatch, and Harold Guymon, who tied for first place, and to Mrs. Rodney Srouse, second place.

Members who planned the affair were Mmes. Robert William, chairman; Charles Anderson, decorations; Elsie Davis, refreshments; Lawrence Middleton, invitations. Mrs. Ila De Priest offered the invocation and Mrs. Mae Anderson, the benediction. The group's president, Mrs. Elna Bybee, gave the welcome address.

Candidate Discloses Platform

Mrs. Arene E. Dean, who is seeking the post of city treasurer in the forthcoming April 13 election, stated this week that she "wishes to inject the spirit of public service into her office, if elected."

"I feel that the spirit of service" is so often lacking in government," Mrs. Dean said. "I am seeking this position out of a true desire to serve people. If elected, I want every individual who comes to me to

Rotarians To Hear Detective

Torrance Rotarians will hear K. W. Wadsworth, division manager for Southern California, at a luncheon at the Hotel Torrance, Tuesday, March 23.

Wadsworth is well qualified as a special investigator, having been with the Pinkerton Detective Agency for over twenty years, with four years out during World War II, during which time he served in Naval Intelligence.

What's the Easiest Way... To take a flash snapshot with a camera not equipped with a synchronized flash circuit?

Put camera on tripod and focus. Set Shutter at TIME. Open shutter. Shoot flash by connecting two terminals of flash gun with some metal object, like a screwdriver. Close shutter. (Don't let anything in picture move while shutter is open.)

What's the Easiest Way... To make sure you get the prestige of having your name printed on your checks?

Open a low-cost ThriftiCheck account at this Bank. Your name is printed on every ThriftiCheck in your book—free of charge and in surprisingly short time. Printed checks give you added prestige and prompt ThriftiCheck payments build up your credit record.
